I certify that I have duly and truly enumerated and recorded the inhabitants of the Subdivision of the District of which I have been duly appointed Enumerator, to the best of my information, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct return of the whole number of persons residing within the limits of the said Subdivision on the first day of June, 1880, and of the several facts required to be stated in respect to each of them, so far as I have been able to obtain the same. Where I have failed to obtain the required information from inability or other cause, I shall present the name and address of the person from whom it should be obtained, and the reason why it was not obtained. I have delivered a true copy of this Schedule to the Supervisor, and have retained a copy for my own use. I have performed all the duties required of me by the Act of Congress, and by the Instructions of the Census Office, to the best of my ability, and have completed my work.

Dated this 16th day of June 1880.
